ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS

HAVAS AGENCY

Marseilles 3rd.

Deaths from Cholera to-day 12 here, and 20 in Toulon.

Berlin 3rd (evening.)

The officious paper Kölnische Zeitung publishes an editorial to-day on the Spanish-German question, couched in the strongest terms and almost amounting to a menace, should Spain insist on her pretensions. No credence is given to the telegram relating the occupation of the island of Yap by the Spaniards; in fact the contrary is believed; that the German flag was hoisted.

Paris 4th.

The Central Committee of the conservative party, in view of the approaching elections, have drawn up a manifesto in which the colonial policy of the Republican Government is bitterly attacked, as well as their distant expeditions, attacks on the clergy etc. The new legislators are supplicated to inquire into the condition of the working classes, vote laws for the fostering of agriculture, and exercise more economy in the handling of the Nation's finances.

Marseilles 4th.

Madrid 4th

The receipt of a dispatch from Berlin, denying the Spanish occupation of Yap, caused great popular excitement here. An immense crowd attacked the doors of the German Legation, and, in spite of the interference of the police, tore down and destroyed the flag. Popular enthusiasm is at its highest point, and agitation is on the increase.

PRESS TELEGRAMS.

Santiago del Estero 5th—Further details have been received with reference to the affair at the Rochista demonstration at Banda.

It appears that Cipriano Carreras made all the soldiers under Correa completely drunk and then attacked the residence of J Gimenez and awakened all the inhabitants by his vociferations. The inmates of the house were then assaulted in their beds and the butt ends of the remingtons were freely applied to the unfortunates.

A young man of the name of Avila has arrived; he is pursued and persecuted by the comisario of the district, M. Zanjon.

The manager of Dr. Requena's establishment is Manuel Llambi, an Oriental.

Further advices have been received with regard to the shameless persecution of the Comandante Zalazaar.

On several occasions applications for enrolment by Rochistas in the province have been refused.

Montevideo 5th—All preparations have been made to give Dr. Victorica, newly appointed Argentine Minister to this city, a brilliant official reception.

The report is contradicted that the Duse had rescinded her contract with the Rossi Company.

Cremation is being advocated by the press, and public opinion seems to adopt the system.

On Thursday next the Inspector General of schools will convene a meeting of professors for the purpose of introducing some reforms in the school system at present existing.

It is stated that the Empresario Caballero will receive a good tangible compensation if he bring out a first-rate zarzuela company next year

San Nicolas 5th.—The Rochistas held a meeting last night. Everything passed off well and the gathering was quite 'agradable.'

M. Manuel Contreras has been named President of the Municipality and Mr. Rojo has been appointed to the Juzgado de Paz.

The Lamport and Holt s.s. Co. have started started steamers in Antwerp with refrigerating machinery on board for the Argentine Frozen Meat Company.

Rosario, 5th.—The papers publish telegrams interchanged between Governor Zavalla, Gen. Roca, and the Minister of Interior with reference to the San Lorenzo affair.

During the month of August the number of deaths in this city amounted to 129, without distinction of sex.

It rained last night and the weather is yet unsettled.

Announcements are being made of several proclamations to take place to-morrow. A political collision is almost a certainty.

Montevideo, 5th.—Col. Fotheringham and family are on board the Tagus and leave in that steamer for Buenos Aires to-night.

No importance is attached to the report that a well-known doctor here is about to be given a portfolio in the Cabinet.

The Saturno and Montevideo sail this evening for B. Aires.

The Pacific Mail steamer Magellan has arrived. Mails will be sent up by river steamer.

FROM OUR BROTHER EDITOR.

London, Aug. 6th.

This morning's papers announce that the allotment of the Egyptian loan has resulted in applicants getting about 6 per cent, which would imply that the sum subscribed was 163 millions or 17 times the amount. It was, however, much more, probably little short of 300 millions sterling, as the Daily News says that many applicants received only 2 per cent. One case is published, of a man who came from Weymouth to purchase £1,000 of the stock, and to him was allotted £30, so that he had his railway expenses and trouble for nothing. Sir M. Hicks Beach confesses that the business might have been better done, but says the triple arrangement of launching the loan at London, Paris and Berlin hampered the action of the Government. The stock is still at 2¾ premium.

Bi-metallists are again making a noise and predict a terrific crisis in India, where they say the rupee will go down to 15 pence if the Bland Act be repealed. India bills were done yesterday at less than 19 pence (18.9), that is only 79 per cent of the old value, or 21 below par. Bar-silver was sold yesterday under 49½ pence, that is equal to 19¼ oz, to one ounce of gold, whereas the standard that ruled from 1840 to 1870 was 15½, shewing that silver has lost exactly 20 per cent of value. There is a common impression in Buenos Ayres, derived from the London newspapers (which are disgracefully loose in matters of statistics) that this depreciation is mainly the result of over-production, but this is not the case. The production of silver neither since 1850 nor at present at all keeps pace with that of gold; the total extraction since 1850 has been 4,100 tons gold and 53,000 tons silver, and as the former was 15½ times the value of the latter we should have needed 64,000 tons silver to keep the supply even. More absurd still is it to talk of demonetization in Germany, Holland etc having led to this fall, since there are at present 491 millions sterling of silver coin in circulation, against 280 millions in 1848, an increase of 75 per cent. The simple truth is, that silver plate is going out of fashion, and the metal has become a drug. There is but one way to restore it to its old value of 61 pence per ounce, by demonetizing gold in all countries.

In this morning's Daily News, which I send, is a copy of the treaty between the New York Banks and the Washington Treasury, signed on July 13th, by which the banks agree to advance the Government 10 million dollars in gold, or rather to give that sum in exchange for Bland dollars (worth from 80 to 84 cents), and if necessary to give a second sum of like amount. It is patriotic on the part of the banks to expose themselves to a loss of 16 or 20 cents in the dollar, but for which the Treasury might be compelled to pay its coupons in silver. On its part the Government undertakes to press on Congress the repeal of the Bland Act, which takes from the Treasury two millions of gold monthly as a protective subsidy to the silver miners. Ever since 1878 the U. States Government has bought one-third of what silver the world produced yearly, to make into Bland dollars, with which the vaults at Washington are crowded. It is surmised that as soon as the Washington market be closed we may expect to see silver at 40 pence p. ounce, which would bring down the rupee to 15 pence. I feel more inclined to limit the fall to 10 per cent, say 44 pence per ounce for silver, equal to about 16½ to 17 pence for the rupee. It is complained that the interest on the Indian debt will thus be augmented (as well as the principal) fully 20 per cent over the old par value, but this is a schoolboy objection, since the price of Indian exports will rise in the same degree. The trade of India was 92 millions sterling in 1873, and 151 millions in 1883, an increase of 65 per cent, which shews that business has not suffered by the fall in the rupee, quite the reverse. It is a remarkable coincidence that when Prince Bismarck sold off 3,000 tons of silver coin, causing that metal to fall to 46 pence per ounce, the trade of India began to rise and has since continued increasing. I do not say the two things were cause and effect, but I maintain that a depreciation of silver is not ruinous to India, and that we need not fear a financial earthquake at Calcutta as soon as the Bland Act be repealed at Washington. Men of cool heads have lost their judgment on this silver question, but the world will march steadily on as if bi-metallism had never been heard of.

We are quite in the dark here about the Pelligrini loan; everybody supposed from the Standard files to July 2nd that it had been arranged, but now the papers of July 9th tell a different story. At all events to make a loan at 70, when the negroes of Natal have just made one at 97, does seem humiliating. Meantime it is gratifying to everyone who has an interest in the Argentine Republic or owns any property there to see the Riestra and Varela loans at 101½, and the Plaza 5 per cents at 85, which is equal to 102 of six per cents. Perhaps it would have been better if the Pellegrini mission had been postponed a year or two. The stoppage of specie payments caused a greater impression than people in Buenos Ayres imagine. I laughed heartily at a friend's enquiry on my arrival, as to the Standard pulling through so sharp a crisis, and assured him that except the 'modista' in Florida Street no failure had taken place. I had to explain that a 'modista' was the South American synonym for court-milliner.

I am engaged for to-morrow to run down to Grantham and see the great agricultural implement works of Messrs Hornsby, where they have 1,600 men constantly employed, the works covering 30 acres. One of the partners, Mr Morton, has just come from B. Ayres, after a long tour through the West Coast and River Plate.

Parliament expects to rise next Thursday, but may sit longer, as Mr. Gladstone declares strenuous opposition to Lord Salisbury's Bill for the Housing of the London Poor, because the sites of unused prisons are to be sold "for the original cost" to the Board of Works for the proposed blocks of dwellings. Mr. Gladstone wants the "unearned increment" to go to the Treasury. It is a pity he does not retire from the scene.

The general elections are to take place in the third week of November, and, as I shall then be probably en route for Buenos Ayres, "Our own Correspondent" will telegraph the result. At present there is no news to telegraph, and our own correspondent will keep you "au courant" with all the politics and topics of the hour.

M. G. M.

A GREAT SOCIAL SCANDAL.

SIR CHARLES DILKE.

We learn that a petition has been filed by Mr. Donald Crawford for divorce from his wife Virginia Mary, Sir Charles Dilke, Bart. M.P., being the co-respondent. We extract the following account of the affair from the "Pall Mall Gazette of yesterday :—

"For some days past the air of London has been thick with rumours as to a scandal affecting one of the most prominent leaders in English politics. Down to the last moment it was believed that the efforts made to hush the affair up would be successful, and that the scandal would not find its way into public print. That expectation has not been fulfilled. In the records of the Probate and Divorce Division at Somerset House there stands the following entry in the list of petitions filed in the Divorce Court:

No. 296. Crawford, Donald, v. Crawford, Virginia Mary, and Dilke, Sir Charles Wentworth. (Dated August 5th.—The co-respondent in this case is the Right Hon. Sir Charles Dilke, Bart., member for Chelsea, and recently a prominent member of Mr. Gladstone's Cabinet, in which he sat as President of the Local Government Board. The plaintiff, Mr. Donald Crawford, held a subordinate but important official position in the Lord Advocate for Scotland's office, Whitehall. The respondent, a daughter of Mr. T. Eustace Smith, M.P. for Tynemouth, is a sister of Mrs. Ashton W. Dilke widow of Mr. Ashton Dilke, formerly M.P. for Newcastle-on-Tyne, and brother of the co-respondent. Mrs. Crawford is young, not more than 20 years of age. Mr. Crawford is considerably her senior. Sir Charles Dilke is 42 years of age and a widower. His late wife was a Miss Catherine Sheil, whom he married in 1872. She died in childbirth in 1874, and was cremated at Dresden. Their son Charles Wentworth Dilke, is now eleven years of age. Mr. Donald Crawford is a barrister, who was for some time private secretary to Lord Young. It is stated that Mr. Inderwick, Q.C., has been engaged for the plaintiff and Sir Henry James for the co-respondent.

The following letter has been received by Mr G. W. Osborn, the President of the Borough of Chelsea Liberal Association, with reference to a petition which has been filed in the Divorce Court against Sir Charles Dilke, M. P. :—

"My dear Osborn—I yesterday received formal notice of the commencement of legal proceedings in reference to a matter seriously affecting my private character, the nature of which I have already communicated to you.

"The charge brought against me is untrue, and I look forward with confidence to the result of the judicial inquiry which must now take place. In the meantime, I am precluded from making any detailed reply, but I am convinced that neither my friends nor my opponents will do me the injustice of condemning me unheard.

"I have to request that you will take steps to convene a meeting of the council of the Liberal Association for this borough in order that these circumstances may be submitted for their consideration. If the council should be of opinion that the interests of the party will suffer at the general election by being confided to one who rests, however undeservedly, under so grave an imputation, I shall be prepared to place myself entirely in their hands, and to retire from all public life until this accusation shall have been disproved.

"It is with a deep regret that I make this communication and contemplate the severance, even for a time, of relations which have existed so long between the constituency of Chelsea and myself. I wish to add the expression of my gratitude for the kindness and generous confidence I have received since 1867 from my supporters, and for the forbearance and courtesy extended to me by my political opponents.

Faithfully yours

"Charles W. Dilke.

London, August 10.

The Paris Temps publishes a statement of General Tseng-Ki-Tong, according to which nothing is known at the Chinese Embassy as to the conclusion of an Anglo-Chinese treaty against Russia.

Business was entirely suspended in New York and in most other cities of the United States on Saturday, in honour of General Grant's funeral. The ceremony was of a most imposing character, the procession, it is estimated, being six miles in length. President Cleveland, Vice-President Hendricks, and the members of the Cabinet, ex-Presidents Hayes and Arthur, the judges of the Supreme Court, Senators and Deputies, the Diplomatic Body, and the Governors of various States, were among those who followed the hearse. The weather was fine, and the influx of people into New York is believed to be without precedent. Memorial services were simultaneously held at a number of cities throughout the Union, including many in the Southern States.

Count Kalnoky will leave Vienna to-morrow for Varzin, on a visit to Prince von Bismarck. This our Vienna correspondent telegraphs, is not merely a visit of courtesy, but is, on the contrary, a journey of important political significance.

A despatch from Constantinople states that the relations between the British Embassy and the Porte have recently become much more cordial. The Sultan has shown the utmost interest in the mission of Sir H. Drummond Wolff.

From Paris our correspondent telegraphs that since the accession of Lord Salisbury's Cabinet to office the relations between England and France have become more friendly than they had been for some years past.

According to information received by our Paris correspondent, the war party seems to be gaining the upper hand at St. Petersburg, supported, it is now said, by the Czar himself. The Nord scouts the idea that Russia should bind herself by treaty to respect the new Afghan frontier when it shall have been defined.

M. Jules Ferry, to whom a banquet was to be given by his friends last night at Lyons, met with a hostile reception on arriving at that town on Saturday. A scene of disorder was kept up in front of his hotel till long after midnight.

A monument to M. Blanqui was unveiled yesterday in the cemetery of Pere Lachaise. Subsequently the Communists held a meeting at a public hall, at which violent speeches were delivered, and a police agent, who was denounced as a spy, terribly maltreated.

Charles Henry Boydell, charged with attempting to levy black mail on Mr. Gladstone and two English ladies, was condemned on Saturday at Vienna to six months' hard labour.

On Friday last 4,689 cases of cholera and 1,662 deaths were reported in Spain. In Marseilles there were 30 fatal cases on Saturday and 17 yesterday. One death from this cause has been registered at Toulon.

The African mail steamer Corisco has been wrecked at the mouth of the River Cestos. Among her passengers, who were all saved. was King Oko Jumbo, who was returning to his country from England.

Ms. and Mrs Gladstone and several friends embarked on board Sir Thomas Brassey's yacht Sunbeam, at Greenhithe, on Saturday evening, for a voyage to Norway.

Sir Henry Drummond Wolff, M.P., and suite left London on Saturday morning en route for Constantinople and Egypt on a special mission.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach. M.P., in the course of a political speech at Bristol on Saturday, justified the course pursued by the Government since they assumed office, pointing out that they had already brought about a more friendly feeling towards this country on the part of Continental nations. He also declared plainly that they would not leave Egypt until all their obligations were fulfilled.

About 6,000 volunteers, representing thirty-five battalions belonging to various parts of England, arrived at Aldershot on Saturday to engage in a week's drill and manœuvring in conjunction with the regular troops.

There is this year a larger attendance than usual of Artillery volunteers at the opening of the Shoeburyness meeting. The competitions will be begun this morning by the first division.

A workmen's demonstration with the object of enlisting public support on behalf of the Bethnalgreen Free Library was held in the East-end on Saturday. At Victoria Park the Lord Mayor met the procession, and in a brief speech expressed his cordial sympathy with the movement.

Viscount Halifax, who held numerous high offices in former Liberal Administrations, died on Saturday, in his eighty-fifth year. He is succeeded by his eldest son, the Hon. Charles Lindley Wood.

Answering an inquiry by the Peace Association, Lord Salisbury states that, so far as the Government are aware, no proclamation was ever issued by British officers putting a price on the head of M. Olivier Pain.

A large falling off is again shown by the Board of Trade returns in the values of both exports and imports.

With the object of testing the desire among the local peasantry to become proprietors of small holdings thirty-eight small plots of land have been offered for sale on liberal terms in the neighbourhood of Colchester but no purchaser came forward.

At the Sussex Assizes on Saturday Miss Emily Weeden, a barmaid, of Hornsey, obtained £150 damages against a merchant in Hastings named Verrills for breach of promise of marriage.

On Saturday Mrs. Jane Hillier, wife of a Church of England clergyman, obtained a decree nisi for the dissolution of her marriage on account of the cruelty and misconduct of her husband.

Saturday's business on the Stock Exchange was even more limited than usual, the dealers in one of the most important markets, the American, having absented themselves in a body as proof of respect to the memory of General Grant. Otherwise there was little to call for special notice, but the tone of most securities, especially Foreign Government bonds and English railways, was firm. Consols were at 99⅞. Gold to the amount of £50,000 was withdrawn from the Bank of England for Lisbon.

Rome, Aug. 8th—Father Bononi, who succeeded in making his escape from El Obeid after a long captivity in the Mahdi's camp, arrived here to-day, and was received at the railway station by the Vicar Apostolic of Central Africa.

Hyde Park Demonstration.—A conference will be held this evening, at half-past seven o'clock, at the Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, with the view "of taking into consideration the best means of organizing the district for the purpose of taking part in the Hyde Park demonstration of Saturday, Aug. 22," in reference to the protection of girls. A deputation from the committee formed for organising the demonstration waited on the executive committee of the London Trades Council at their meetings on Saturday last, held at the offices, Whitefriars-street, Fleet-street, under the presidency of Mr, Coulson (general secretary of the Operative Bricklayers' Society.) The members of the deputation having explained the object of their visit as an effort to secure the help and cooperation of the trades in making the proposed meeting a success, the following resolution, moved by Mr. King, and seconded by Mr. C J Drummond, was adopted: "That, whilst having the greatest possible sympathy with efforts to protect in every form the lives and morals of the youth of our country—a work in which the London Trades Council has for 25 years been actively engaged—this executive regrets that, from various causes, it is unable to take part in the proposed demonstration in Hyde Park, in as much as the Criminal Law Amendment Bill will by that time have been passed into law; moreover, in the judgment of this executive, such demonstrations will not be truly effective or result in any permanent good by merely protesting against an existing evil. the real remedy being to change the basis of our social life, which, in consequence of the economic conditions between capital and labour, produces low wages and by other artificial means creates hell on earth, degrades men by poverty, ruins women by starvation, and dwarfs the national childhood by physical and mental destitution, thus constituting the most powerful incentives to vice of every description."

The Munster Bank.—In the Dublin Bankruptcy Court on Saturday Judge Millar, on the application of the Munster Bank, adjudicated Mr. Robert Farquharson, the absconding manager, a bankrupt, as he was indebted to the bank in the sum of £238 on a current account, and was possessed of certain property in Dublin. In the Chancery Division, before the Master of the Rolls, Mr. Overend, Q. C., applied, on the part of the provisional liquidators of the bank, for an order to offer a reward for the apprehension of Farquharson. After some further conversation his honour granted the application—the reward to be £500.

Electioneering excitement is each day increasing both in town and country, and perhaps it would be just as well for the peace and order of the town if the night demonstrations by the clubs were stopped by the chief of Police; they tend to trouble.

SPORTING NOTES AND ANTICIPATIONS.

There is a good deal of apathy and wet-blanketty feeling about the coming races at La Plata, which, unless the weather interfere, will take place next Tuesday.

The programme is one of the poorest we have seen for a long time, and beyond the big race, Premio La Plata, there is no interest and very little speculation in the other three events. In the Premio La Plata there are 47 entries, but of these not more than from 15 to 20 will come to the post.

The Stud Buenos Aires figures most prominently with seven entries, of which, however, only three are probable starters. The stable seems to rely mainly on Surplice and Kettledrum, and public opinion seems to share the same confidence and makes them two hot favorites. Among their competitors there are some horses, such as Belvoir and Cora, whose previous performances entitle them to some amount of favor, besides others who appear in public for the first time, and of which rumour speaks very favourably, among them being Attorante, Boccaccio, and Bolito.

In the first race, Premio Punto, six horses are entered. Escoces will have it all his own way, although Princess may give him some trouble.

In the second race, Premio Dolores, Banjo has the advantage of weight, but it is likely that Diana will add another score to her list of triumphs, unless Carte-blanche, who is as yet unknown, should take after her sire, the well-known Vermouth, and wrest the palm from her.

In the last race, Premio Capital, Bonnie Bee, if she is fit and is made to run, ought to have an easy victory.

The attendance at the races is not expected to be large, even if the weather should settle down to fine, as the distance of La Plata Race-course and the inconveniences in reaching it are strong deterrents for all, save the most "enragé" turfites.

However, those who forego the pleasure of going to La Plata on Tuesday will have ample opportunity of making it up next month, as the Jockey Club has decided on holding two meetings at Palermo, one on the 11th and the other on the 25th. At the first the big prize, worth 10,000 nacionales, will be run for, and this will undoubtedly be the event of the year.

LONDON LETTER.

OPENING OF THE HOBBY SEASON.

THE SILVER SPECTACLE.

(From our own Correspondent.)

July 30th.

The London season of 1885 has come and gone. Goodwood is done with, and "Dalmeny" has won. The sporting prophets were at fault, a fact not mentioned here as interesting in itself, but only to remind you that whether the subject be ships, law, commerce, or race-horses, the opinion of experts is not infallible. Scarcely has the last wax-light been extinguished in Marlborough House, or the crumbs of patrician feasts swept from the velvet lawns of Goodwood, ere Mr. Giffen, Mr. Goschen, Mr. S. Williamson, or, more correctly, Mr. S. Smith, Sir Wilfrid Lawson, Mr. Fowler, and the skirmishers or advanced guard of our autumn hobbyists rush into the Times, each reading the handwriting on the wall in his own language, and warning us that our salvation depends on fair trade or free, beer, or bi-metallism, or the depreciation of gold.

Not long ago Mr. Giffen, looking with the powerfully-focussed lens of a statistician, through an atmosphere, hazy with figures, beheld a vision of a commercially regenerated America, and in his imagination—such as it is—heard the increased whirr and clank of wheel and hammer. This vision, like that of the sporting papers, was not prophetic. Three columns of to-day's Times are occupied with the question of the "Silver Spectre in the United States." The gist of the very interesting article, published by your contemporary is, that the efforts made by the United States Treasury to rid itself of a depreciated silver currency have reached their maximum and the turning point at which signs of cornering and collapse may be anticipated. By the manufacture of silver certificates, millions of silver dollars have been foisted into temporary and artificial circulation, and these are returning to the Treasury more rapidly than they can be re-issued. A direct test, we are told, of their reflux, is to be found in the receipts for Customs' duties in New York. In the first four months of 1883, about 78½ per cent. of these Customs' payments were made in gold, or gold certificates, against 15.3. per cent. made in silver certificates. In the same four months of 1884, the silver payments for Customs' duties rose to 24½ per cent., while the payments in gold fell from 78½ per cent. to 65½ per cent. Again, in the corresponding four months of the current year the proportion of silver payments rose to fully 37 per cent., while the gold payments fell to 35 per cent. If a similar change has been going on at the outposts, as very probably it has. the Treasury must be getting flooded with its returned silver certificates, and while it continues to add 2,000,000 dollars a month to its stock of silver, the public not only refuse to take more of it, but they will not keep what they have already got. The country, says my authority, has come so near to the edge of the precipice, that a very slight push would now send it over. Five months ago, when President Cleveland was about to take office, he strongly recommended, in a semi-official communication, that immediate action should be taken. Congress was about to adjourn, and nothing was done. In spite of the prudence of bankers and business men New York, through the summer months, has literally hung on the brink of casualties, any one of which might have precipitated a crisis. The danger is, that unless the coinage of silver and the issue of silver certificates are suspended, silver, as the Secretary of the Treasury has said, and not gold, will become the metallic standard of the United States. What risk then is there of a drain of gold arising in New York? At the present moment, with exchange on London quoted at 4.85¾ dollars, and the Bank of England rate at 2. per cent., there may, says the Times correspondent, be comparative safety. At this moment money is worth less in London than in New York, and still sterling exchange keeps fairly firm, but there is evidently some uneasiness behind it. There is every prospect of a short wheat crop in the States, involving an advance in exchange, which means a premium on gold.

It is satisfactory to know that in the face of disasters that might occur, a comparatively sanguine view of the probable course of foreign exchange during the autumn is taken in financial circles in New York.

"But," says the writer. "there is another quarter in which the storm may burst." The domestic trade of the United States, like our own, has been suffering a severe strain for a series of years back. In 1884 a general crash was only averted by the prompt and courageous action on the part of the banks. Judging from the amount of the banking clearances which show a general shrinkage, and making allowance for low prices, there is reason to suspect that in the present year there is a positive decline in the volume of business. The effect on such a state of things, as short crop, an accumulation of bankrupt railroads, crowds of factories closed, and iron furnaces shut-down, can be imagined; and if bank failures were to ensue, and public confidence be shaken, there would be a sudden demand for gold, not to send abroad, but into the interior. Every bank, from New York to San Francisco, and from the Lakes to Florida, would have to fortify itself with all the cash it could get together, and the result would be a far more serious panic than any foreign drain of gold could excite.

The correspondent, from whom I am quoting, then gives important statistical information as to the amount and holding of gold, silver and notes. The aggregate circulation of the United States, he places on the authority of experts in the Treasury department, at 1500 millions of dollars. He thinks that one of the first symptoms of a coming panic would be the pressure of silver certificates on the market.

To-day's Times is full of interest to men of business as in addition to the remarkable article I have quoted at some length, there are in continuation of the discussion on the silver trade initiated by Mr. Samuel Smith the junior member for Liverpool, several letters on these subjects that I seem to be inspired by the approaching Royal Commission on trade depression over which Lord Iddesleigh is to preside, and as the Times says, he with his sober economic views has great difficulty in forming his team so as to exclude bi-metallists, fair traders and hobby-men in general.

LUNG WORMS IN SHEEP.

Azul, September 3.

We understand several 'estancieros' are losing hundreds of sheep in the Southern camps, and for the benefit of the sheepfarmer we have pleasure in giving an excellent remedy supplied to us by Mr C P Hayward (Fabricante Glycerina) who presents us with it, free, gratis.

Of late years this most distressing and fatal disease has become more or less prevalent amongst sheep in all parts of the world. Many farmers have not paid any attention to it, the forms it may assume, or given themselves any trouble to find out. It was seen that sheep became affected, gradually acquired a peculiar husky cough, lost condition, and ultimately died. Many of our readers are no doubt unpleasantly familiar with the disease, and tried various remedies. The following simple one by fumigation will be found very effective, having been used with great success.

Cure by Fumigation.—Build a closed sided pen to hold say 50 sheep; place an old empty drum in the centre, fenced round to prevent the sheep upsetting it. After filling pen with sheep, place in the drum a few buring shavings, and put on these a handful of powdered sulphur and at once throw a tarpaulin over all to keep in the fumes. Keep all closed for five minutes, then throw the tarpaulin off and let the sheep go. Memo.—Do not on any account use charcoal or allow the embers to accumulate, as the fumes caused by sulphur and charcoal are most poisonous, but with shavings or paper it is safe.

N.B.—Plenty of common salt-given to the sheep in the early stage of the disease will often cure.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The mails per Tagus were delivered yesterday afternoon; we give a summary in another column. The great London scandal about Mrs Crawford and Sir Chas. Dilke is in the papers and a matter of public notoriety; it will be the most remarkable divorce suit ever tried in the London Courts. We welcomed our old friend Colonel Fotheringham back; he has arrived in the mail after a pleasant tour in his native country. He is the only foreigner, except old Admiral Brown, who has reached in this country the dignity of Governor.

To-day the Right Rev. Dr Stirling, Bishop of the Falklands, preaches at St. John's Church at 11 a.m. Through an oversight we omitted to mention this yesterday.

Mr Hayward and some others left town yesterday for the exhibition at Mercedes, which, if the weather prove favorable, will be a great success, but the rain may spoil everything.

The English concert at the Flores theatre, for the benefit of the church funds, is postponed to 22nd inst. We hear that some of our most charming amateurs have promised to help the cause.

General Mansilla was worse than ever yesterday evening, and his life is despaired of.

Yesterday the funeral of young Mr Malespino took place, a young man 20 years of age, died from the effects of a thorn in his nose which produced cancer; he was son of the well-known miller on the Rio Negro; the case is a truly sad one.

The square of land in Calle Rio Bamba and Junin, behind Callao, sold the other day for 180,000, was resold yesterday for 200,000 m/n, before even the titles were signed. This property in 1875 could not be sold for 40,000 pats; the rise in city property is something astounding.

Mr Noceti, the well-known broker, is at present at the baths of Rosario de la frontera, and writes down that they are splendid.

On Monday, readers, you must all be on the alert to see the brokers procession of 1 o'clock, from the old Bolsa to the new one. To see 900 Bolsa brokers all dressed in their Sunday suits, and all walking arm-in-arm through the streets, is indeed a sight not often to be witnessed in Buenos Ayres. Shakespeare even speaks of brokers, and talks of "that broker who still breaks." The Lord Mayor's day in London is nothing to this broker hegira on Monday. We have not heard what they charge for the windows in Calle San Martin.

The report of Dr. Wilde, Minister of Culto, was given round yesterday; it is beyond question the heaviest work of the kind ever published, over 1,200 pages, and betrays the most astonishing industry on the part of the Minister. We shall at our leisure review portions of this portly volume, but we feel quite certain that there is not a Congress man, not an editor, in the Republic, not even a school master or school mistress who will be able to get through this truly tremendous work. Luckily it was printed at the Penitentiary so that it cost little to get up, but our Ministers ought to have a little more mercy on editors than to publish such voluminous reports that it makes one tremble to took at it on the editorial table.

Mr J A Blake late M.P. for Waterford, Ireland, has arrived out in the mail, on a pleasure trip to these parts. We welcome this distinguished traveller and hope he will like the country. Mr Blake has travelled through China, Japan, Australia and New Zealand and has published his travels. He purposes writing of this country and of the Irish settlers in the Plate. We are, therefore, most anxious that he sees the best side of everything and takes back to poor Ireland the most pleasurable memories.

Dr Zavalia was again operated upon yesterday; we are happy to say that he is somewhat better.

Hector Varela nearly died last month in Madrid from an apoplectic attack; according to the advices yesterday he is now recovering.

With the races close on us sporting tips and intelligence are on every tongue. The meeting may or not be a success; prospects at present point neither one way nor the other. The services of Radcliffe, the River Plate Archer, have been retained until the end of the season by one of our leading English studs, but we do not expect that there will be any "hot" ones just now. Stud owners had better make a bid for his services before he leaves the Plate, which will be at the end of the season, unless he is prevailed on to prolong his stay.

The weather won't be the ticket for the races, at least we are very dubious about it. We're always sorry to see fun spoiled.

The news given by the Correo Español yesterday morning is very serious. Spain seems to be Bismarck's cats-pow whenever he wants to get at France. As a matter of mere common sense right to take the islands Germany is undoubtedly right; as Spain has left the Carolinas completely abandoned for years and years, and there was neither flag nor functionary of Spain on them when the Germans occupied them. We greatly fear that the Spanish Government is humbugging the people. It is pretty clear now that the Germans have still possession of the islands, and that the news about Spanish ships having taken them is all nonsense, as no ships were sent to take them. The whole affair looks ugly, very ugly. We would hardly give a month's purchase for Alfonso's crown, if war break out.

The Prensa says that this month of September will be the turning point of the crisis for better, for worse. The whole situation and country can be saved by simply cutting six millions off the Budget and reducing it to 34 millions; but this our electioneering administration will not do; unless Congress forces it; and we have a very shy opinion of the said Congress. There are, however, a few common sense men in it. Every paving stone in the city shouts 'Viva Carillo!' to the honourable Senator's proposal to clip our reckless Lord Mayor's wings and stop his mad Boulevard scheme, as also the new Policia and Immigrants' Hotel. Lots more things ought to be stopped also.

Talking of the Lord Mayor; his brilliant career was within an ace of being cut short on Friday by a big stone hurled through the plate glass window of his dining room while he was at breakfast. When his Lordship rushed to the smashed window to see what was up, a second stone went still nearer 'doing for him.' It was a starving 'atorrante,' three days without food, who had deliberately broken the windows in order to be imprisoned and fed.

The electioneering sea is getting rougher. At the Celmanic demonstration on Friday night there was a scrimmage in Calle Esmeralda, owing to one of the marching politicians having blocked the 'galera' of an old gentleman who was standing in a doorway with his mouth open, gaping at the mob going by. This caused some confusion, and then a 'rush' was made for a bootmaker's shop near by, for what reason is unexplained. The poor son of St. Crispin tried to close his door but three fingers were caught in it and nearly taken off. Then a pickpocket was caught with his hand in a man's pocket, and there was another scuffle and shillabaloo in which a policeman lost his professional head piece and his temper Then a sudden shower of rain came down that made the whole crew run like redshanks, and the streets were clear in the twinkling of an eye. It is most singular how rain instantly disperses the noisiest and most excited crowd

The Staff, which is now completed, consists of the following; and, as will be seen by the qualifications appended is, perhaps the best working-staff to be found in any private school, Native or Foreign, in the Argentine Republic.

The boy of 14 that was run over by a train car in Rosario last week, and had both his legs amputated next day, has died. The local papers complain that the tramway 'empresa' has not given the boys' poor parents a copper, nor were even enquiries made as to how the victim was getting on.

We would n't be editor of the Heraldo of Asuncion for all the money in the Provincial Bank. An attempt to murder him seems to be made regularly once a month. The papers to hand report that he has again miraculously escaped a couple of pot shots taken at him with a revolver, by a Cabinet Minister, or a Senator, or some person of that sort. We congratulate him on his escape. Editor shooting is as popular a form of sport in the River Plate as landlord shooting is in Ireland.

Song for the present members of the House of Commons at the general election—"Then you'll re-member me."

There was a 'fuegocito' on Friday night in a sheebang. (It would be the grossest flattery to call it an 'almacen' as our colleagues do) Calle Estados Unidos. Not much damage done, but the 'vecinos' were greatly alarmed lest the blaze should spread and fry them in their own fat.

The report of a split between President Roca and his Minister of the Interior is one of the barefaced electioneering lies of the season.

At the last moment on Friday General Victorica postponed his departure for the Mount till to-morrow evening.

Lots of pleasure parties to La Plata and other places are being arranged for the holiday on Tuesday. Four members of the A. Y. C. started yesterday on a cruise to Belen in the Uruguay, on board that tight little craft, the 'Gaviota.' The day was anything but pleasant for a sail.

A gentleman who was blessed with a musical son-in-law, on seeking a joke that 'the musician, like the cook, makes his bread out of doh,' remarked—'That may be so in some instances, but in my case the musician makes his bread out of me.'

Captain Hunter Davidson has resigned his post as Chief of the Hydrographic Commission of the Upper Parana, consequently the said commission has collapsed and been dissolved. We regret very much the retirement of this skilled and scientific officer.

The Paris Wood Paving Company have sent out an agent to make better terms with the Lord Mayor than offered in the now famous 'ad referendum' contract. It's all nonsense. The outlay' is too great for the present hard times.

A chorus singer in the National Theatre blew his brains out on Friday because he could not meet some small debts. The scene round the chair in which the poor fellow survived for half an hour was heart-rending, as his wife and two little daughters knelt at his feet to catch his last sigh. The doctors and policemen even were moved to tears. He was a Spaniard.

The 30th of this month will be the last day for enrolment in the National Guard, so we warn all Anglo-Argentine warriors to look sharp and hearken to the "spirit-stirring drum" or they will be fined and punished unmercifully.

The Rossi dramatic company has burst up sky high in Rio, so Buenos Ayres will be spared a visit from it.

Three hundred more squares of abominable stone pavement. What an infliction! Why does not the Lord Mayor buy the small, well-cut paving stones to be seen here and there throughout the city, instead of the big, soft and worthless lumps of granite the jobbers in the article are forcing on him?

The National Government has paid more in guarantee to the East Argentine Railway than the whole of its capital! Decidedly bad speck this.

An enterprising gentleman in the "restoration" line is going to start a big summer café on the banks of the Tigre. It might pay.

Colonel Bosch has had the Commissary who gave some unpleasantness to a Rochista procession the other night hauled up and booked for a "sumario." Well done. Nevertheless, the public are getting rather nervous about these political processions through the streets, as they are becoming nightly affairs. Some fine night there will be a scrimmage that will end more seriously than in pancaked hats or torn coattails.

"Is this a singing doll?" asked she of the shopman. "Yes, miss." "How do you make it sing?" "Just as you would any other young woman." "How is that?" "By pressing it." "Oh!"

Dr. Bustos had a will case in his court on Friday in which the testators whole fortune was sworn under four Nats. It is an insult to the laws to bring such a case into court.

"I do think that 13 is really an unlucky number," said a pert young miss, who had just entered her teens; "it is too old for dolls and too young for beaux!

By the latest estimates the fisheries of Great Britain are rated worth $50,000,000 annually, the U. States, second in the world, at $43,000,000, and Russia, third, at $26,250,000.

Colonel Cordoba has managed to get down the river with a whole skin. He was in the Government House yesterday, but President Roca either could n't or would n't see him.

Any subscriber contemplating a trip to Paris should be careful about taking Bank of France notes. A swindler fresh from the Boulevards has put a lot of them in circulation here. The police have stopped his personal circulation by locking him up.

A divine, noted alike for his wit and his bad penmanship, was unexpectedly detained out of the city, and telegraphed—"Train's delayed. Read Colossians ii. 5." This the telegraph operator rendered—"Trains delayed. Road collisions. Two fires."

Our highly esteemed colleague La Union is, we hear, about to imitate the Courrier and pass into the hands of a private company with 100,000 Nats. Our colleague will be enlarged and otherwise improved.

The Spanish papers report an extraordinary feat performed by a pilgrim who walked in the beginning of the year the whole way from Madrid to Jerusalem, arriving there on April 1st in time for the Easter solemnities.

An eminent Italian photographer of this city is about to launch four grand scenes of the recent famous Bolsa Ball. "The Stealing of the Top-coats" is the masterpiece of the lot. Some people are afraid of identification. The best story about the top-coat muddle we have heard yet is an obscure masher who put on a wrong top-coat and, suddenly finding his own, put it on over the other, (in pure absence of mind of course) and walked out.

"Sermons in Stones."—Pickens County, Ga., has a post office named Talking Rock. The origin of the name is thus stated: Some one discovered in the vicinity a large stone, upon which had been painted the words, "turn me over." It required considerable strength to accomplish this, and when it was done, the command, "Now turn me back, and let me fool somebody else," was found painted on the under-side of the stone.

Some vain Gaul has compiled a new language which he calls Valapuk. He calls it universal and commercial. Massoo might have spared himself the trouble. English is already the commercial and is destined to be the universal language.

The firm reaction that took place in the gold market this morning was a surprise to nobody, but the bulls were much mistaken if they thought for a moment that they could take up large amounts at last night's weak prices. No sooner had they begun to buy this morning than the market jumped and the premium went up. The speculation is in its most susceptible stage and fluctuations depend on the slightest movements of the bulls; if they sell, the market goes down by the run, as everybody considers the premium exorbitantly high; if they buy, prices rush up like a rocket, as all are perfectly aware that they control the market. Speculative power has its drawbacks, as well as its lucrative advantages, and the bulls are now in the unpleasant dilemma of finding the best means of getting rid of a most profitable operation. The campaign up to the present has been a chain of brilliant victories; the great rub is to pursue the fruits of last month's victory, and that is the problem they must solve this month. Both bears and outsiders are keenly watching the bulls and are operating in the most cautious manner, but the facility with which a bearish speculation can be worked for October may yet induce peculators for a fall to abandon their prudent policy and play into the hands of the bulls this month.

Operations in gold for cash embraced about $200,000 m/n; the market opened at 41.70, fell to 41, and closed firm at 41½. Speculation for the end of the month ruled dull; $258,000 were sold, the market opening at 41, falling to 40½, and closing firm at 41½. 100,000 were sold for the end of October at 39. The market opened weak, but closed firm with an upward tendency. Some of the leading bulls began buying this morning, and this put up the market immediately. About $600,000 were sold during official hours; the speculation ruled much less active than yesterday, and there is an impression that dullness in affairs will increase, if the bulls push the premium any higher. A fall, on the other hand, would be accompanied by a brisk speculation.

The great ease of the money market is pushing up the price of Cedulas. Fair amounts of Cedulas F were sold this morning at 81 for the end of the month. Series E changed hands at 80¾. Twenty thousand Cedulas G were sold cash at 87½, and 85,500 for the end of the month at 87½-¼.

The favorite Scrip of the National Bank is stuck hard at 109. About 500 were sold today for cash and for the end of the month at 108½ and 109. The old shares appear to be completely forgotten. Ten shares of the New Bolsa were sold at 60 o/o premium.

The members of the Bolsa are earnestly requested to meet on Monday, at mid-day, in the Calle San Martin and to adjourn "en masse" to take possession of the new Exchange building in the Calle Piedad. If, as expected, the members answer the summons, the procession to the Calle Piedad will eclipse all the Rochista and Juarista meetings held up to the present. Some brokers are in favour of getting a brass band and marching through the Calle San Martin with banners flying, but the majority are opposed to the idea. From what we can gather, everybody is delighted to abandon the gloomy precincts of the old Bolsa and to leave the scene of such a lengthy record of speculative vicissitudes. Many will miss the familiar "algibe" and they will be puzzled to find out in the new building a spot as congenial and as convenient to take up their quarters at four o'clock. The marble of the "algibe" has a checkered history of its own, written on the worn-out slab that has withstood for so many years the encroachments of the leading coat-tails in the hall.

Exchange continues dull at 46⅞ to 47d. There is nearly nothing doing for the present, owing to the departure of the packet. Money continues easy at current rates.

The liquidation is going ahead smoothly now. The hiatus in the settlement does not amount to three hundred thousand dollars, and now that angry feelings are cooling down there are fresh hopes of arrangement with parties who failed at the settlement.

The reductions made in the Budget by the Committee of the Deputies amount to 1,200,000$m/n. This is a fleabite in the enormous estimates of 40 millions. Far better to make no reduction at all, than to go through this farce of economy. The reduction should amount to 5 millions at least.

Our colleague La Revista Financiera appeared to-day in gala dress, the first page in gold letters. The occasion for such festive display is the Forced Currency Bill before Congress, and our colleague seizes the opportunity of printing in gold letters the names of the merchants of Montevideo who in 1875 signed an agreement to forego the forced currency privileges granted by the Uruguayan Government. Every member of Congress should have a copy of the Revista in his pocket and read on the first page the unanimous protest of this market against a legislation that legalizes repudiation.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

46⅞-47d on France.
4.94-95 on Antwerp.
4.94 on France.
4.92 to 4.93 on Paris.

The gold market ruled dull during after-hours, but the premium was very firm and rose to 42½ for the end of the month. The market, however, weakened at five o'clock and the speculation closed at 42, buyers for the end of the month. A few hundred thousand dollars were sold during the evening.

The returns of the Custom House yesterday amounted to 103,000 m/n. This is above the daily average.

The hall was more crowded than usual this afternoon, but payments were small, although the desks were crowded. Many members attended, perhaps this being the last day of the old Bolsa.

Advices from the Nueve de Julio report fires in the camps. The severe weather has been followed by heavy mortality amongst the lambs. Lambs are not in good condition and animals are thin. Fires are now reported in Guamini; cows are reported sold at 162 m/c per head.

Eight hundred cows have been sold in Juarez at [illegible] m/n per head. Heavy rains have fallen in the district.

Two thousand sheep in Carmen have been sold at 36 m/c per head.

One thousand head of cattle are reported sold beyond Rojas at 6.75 m/n per head.

Five hundred mares have been sold in Lincoln at 82 m/c per head.

6,000 capones are reported sold in the North at 51 m/c per head.

Mr. Fernandez has purchased 600 picked cows in Azul at 12 m/n per head.

Messrs. Drabble have bought 2,000 capones in Mercedes at 50 m/c per head for their freezing establishment.

Mr. Gorozabal, of Patagones, has bought 2,000 cows in Bahia Blanca at 6 m/n per head. These animals go to his estancia in the Rio Negro.

An outsider bought a thousand Certificates of the National Bank yesterday. It looks as if a speculation is brewing in the Scrip.

On the 10th inst. discounts will be reopened in the branch of the Provincial Bank in La Plata. This is good news for people residing in the provincial capital.

There appears to be a considerable lull in the land business. Since the beginning of the month not a single important transaction has been reported, and landbrokers report the market at a stand-still. Some important transactions that were pending have fallen through. A colleague reports great demand for lands in the Gran Chaco territory and announces that some party or company will apply to the Government for a concession of three hundred leagues.

The Pomona has arrived at Bahia Blanca, en route for Patagones.

Rosario advices:—

Steamer Hogarth arrived Sept. 23rd and sailed 28th with 3,000 dry hides, 1,203 salted hides, 4,400 bags linseed, 419 pks. minerals. The Argentine steam lighter arrived on 24th and received 150 tons railway material from Hogarth for the Entre Riano Railway. Same steamer Coma brought out from England 450 tons of railway material for above railway. Coma sailed for Parana on 26th, discharged her cargo and arrived at San Lorenzo September 3rd to load a full cargo of wheat for Boca. Archimedes arrived on 27th ult. and sailed on 31st with 500 tons maize and 24 pkgs. specie. Steamer Bessel arrived on 31st and proceeded to Messrs Jewell's new deposit to receive 1,000 tons of maize for Liverpool, discharging at same time her Liverpool outward cargo in lighters. This is rather unusual for Rosario; as a rule the steamers of late, having so much railway material to discharge either accomplish it at railway wharves or discharge into lighters and then steam to some of the barracas to receive their cargo. Messrs. Jewell's new deposits possess a fine shoot, are well built, and have a capacity for 40,000 bags. They are in a good safe situation, and chain moorings are to be put down.

The following are the figures in detail of the returns of the Custom House for last month:—

We take the following cure for worms in sheep from our colleague the Southern Cross:—"Make a strong mixture, half vinegar and half brine. A little garlic boiled in the brine may be added thereto. Pour two spoonfulls of the mixture down the throat of each sheep."

We extract from Messrs. Stuart, Williams & Co.'s important shipping list from Montevideo, under date Aug. 1st to Sept. 1st, 1885, the following:—

Charters effected since August 1st—

Vessels in distress in port—

Brit. barque Wandering Sprite abandoned by crew on the English Bank, was towed off and brought in here, and is now discharging for further survey.

Brit. bkt. City of Charlottetown has been condemned and sold by auction, the hull fetching $1,750. The cargo also has been sold to pay expenses.

Brit. barque Florence Chipman loaded with coal, lost on the English Bank and became a total wreck. Crew saved, but lost their effects.

Brit. steamer Gainsford still ashore at Castillos Grandes.

Freight Report—

We are still unable to report any improvement in freights from the R. Plate, which is, however, only in accordance with our prediction of last month, when we expressed the opinion that no sensible rise in rates was to be looked before beginning of next season say in November.

On the whole there has been rather a drop, and those quoted as ruling last month for grain from the Parana and B. Ayres have hardly been maintained, it being now difficult to obtain fs.25 per ton from the former or fs.20 from the latter.

The list of charters effected by sailing vessels requires no comment.
